Georgia Special Needs Scholarship Program – amount determined by the state per child. Payment comes in four equal payments during the school year. If the GSNS amount does not cover the full tuition for the child, the parents are responsible for the balance of tuition required by the school.

Tuition for the 2017–2018 school year is for August 2017–May 2018 and is paid monthly. The first month's tuition is non-refundable.

For children registered by June 1, 2017, tuition is divided into 12 monthly payments. The first month's tuition is due by March 15, 2017 to reserve your child's place for fall. When the first month's tuition is paid in March, there will be no tuition owed for June 2017.

New Policy: For the 2017-2018 school year, there will be a penalty of $1800 for children withdrawn before the end of the school year. This will take effect on June 1, 2017. The penalty will be waived for families who move out of the immediate school area. In the event of hardship, there is a process to waive the fee on a case by case basis.

- A 3% discount is given to payment of full tuition by July 1, 2017.
- A sibling discount of 10% is given for additional children from the same family.

- A 20% discount is available for school staff and members of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church.
- Some scholarship money is available upon request. Scholarship applications are available in the school office, and the deadline is February 15, 2017.
